Who We Are

The Golden Tours Foundation is a charitable organisation offering life-changing opportunities for young people to help fulfil their aspirations. It has a broad spectrum of charitable aims nurturing on the philosophy of personal, social and economic growth through education.

The Foundation's ethos is to secure opportunities for the future generations by working for and with them. Only by such inclusive partnerships, is there hope for future social and economic wealth for us all.

The Golden Tours Foundations works primarily in the United Kingdom and India with plans to work on international projects globally with organisations who shares its vision.
